Native Hawaiian Church

Established:
2009

Summary: Protect, promote, and preserve native Hawaiian religious, cultural, and spiritual practices and traditions related to the people of old. These traditions and practices have evolved and continue to develop to enrich and nurture the wellness and health of the people and the land. These practices and traditions include Makahiki, Hooponopono, Hookeikahi, Laau Lapaau, and Lomilomi as passed down and practiced in today's world. These practices and traditions require a commitment to protect and preserve all archeological, historical, and iwi kupuna burial sites as sacred sites deserving respect and preservation. The protection and preservation of these sacred sites includes traditional cultural properties, places, and natural resources, and foods, plants, fishes, birds, and animals.
